Terms and Conditions

Warranty—We believe every animal to be sold in this sale will prove a breeder under proper care, but should any bull in this offering prove not a breeder after a reasonable trial period, we will replace him to the buyer's satisfaction or refund the purchase price, and further, should any female not prove to be in calf to service given and on further trials fail to get with calf, we will replace such animal with another of equal value as near as possible, or refund the cost price. Cows with calves are considered breeders and no further guarantee is given.

Pedigrees—A transfer certificate of registry in the American Shorthorn Herd Book will be furnished for every animal, with the exception of young calves sold with the dam, and there will be furnished with these a pedigree in the application form, ready for registry.

Terms—Cash or short time note bearing 6 per cent interest. Anyone not personally known to us desiring to give note for purchase please bring bank reference. All stock will be loaded on cars after sale without trouble to the purchaser. Buyer's risk after bid off. All cattle will be tuberculin tested to conform with the different state requirements.

L. F. Boyle, Hennepin, Ill., will sell 60 head the day following in the same place.

The Illinois Shorthorn Breeders Association will hold a two days' show and sale at Galesburg, on Feb. 20-21, C. J. McMaster, Altona, Ill., Manager.

SHORTHORN BREEDERS, ATTENTION

Seldom, if ever before in the annals of Shorthorn sales at vendue, has there been recorded a case where an old and successful breeding establishment divided equally with the public the results of two score years of operations. Public offerings, almost without number, have been made which consisted of as high class cattle as the breed could boast, but few indeed could rightfully claim that not a single animal had been previously purchased for speculative purposes.

Linwood Herd was established in 1878, four years prior to the founding of the world famous herd of the same name by the late Col. W. A. Harris. Since that time it has gone on without a halt, through booms and depressions, although this period has marked the rise and fall of many good herds that came into existence almost over night, and flourished for a time, only to succumb to one or more of the many depressing components which characterize most "mushroom" enterprizes.

Linwood Herd has ever been self-sustaining. Never has it been necessary to bolster its financial affairs with the funds of another business. It is the only enterprise in which its owners have been engaged, and records reveal that it has ever been a profitable one.

HEREIN LIES THE REASON

The herd was founded by the selection of seed recommended by one of America's most successful constructive breeders, J. H. Pickrell. His advice as well as that of his contemporary, the late Col. J. W. Judy, was freely sought and closely followed until experience was gained. Much time and attention has been given breeding operations, and nothing but the best sires used. The weeding out process has been ever in vogue, until at the present time the herd numbers about 135 head of money-making cattle.

They are business cattle for the business man who wants to see figures on the right side of the ledger. Quality rather than quantity has ever been our motto—quality by performance rather than show ring honors, and an undefeated grand champion has no place at Linwood, if he is not a producer of merit.

While not having exhibited our cattle extensively, they have been very successful when shown by us or by our customers, and we hold a record equaled by but one other herd, of having won 4 first prizes at the International on 4 different bulls, all of which were used to head our herd, and 2 other bulls used at the head of our herd were second in class to the Grand Champion of the show.

In the pedigrees herein listed may be found an intermingling of the blood of all these bulls, as well as that of many other famous prize winners on both sides of the Atlantic.

In presenting this catalog to the public we take pride in proclaiming the cattle, whose pedigrees are herein contained, an equal division of the fruits of our endeavors for upwards of half a century. Many of them are the tops of the herd. They are as good as we own. They will be presented, not ready for the show ring, but ready for the herd, which is of far greater value, as many breeders have discovered through sad experience. They are workers, every one, and will do for you what they have done for us.

We extend a cordial invitation to all lovers of the world's greatest beef breed, to be with us on sale day, and secure some of the seed from one of the oldest and most successful herds in America.
